

Monkeys Use Flats.
Brahm, in his "Thierleben," tells how certain kinds of monkeys emphasize their feelings by striking with their fists. When angry or excited they bring their fists down upon the ground with all their might. They are not quite as foolish as the man who hammers the table with his fist. They have this excuse: the are looking for a stone or stick with which to crack the skull of their dissenting fellow-monkey.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford Model T one-ton truck is proving a splendid time and money-saver on the farm. It is very flexible in control, strong and dependable in service. It has really become one of the farmer's necessities. One Ford truck is equal to half a dozen teams, and it won't "eat its head off" when not working. The very low price makes it popular with shrewd farmers who analyze conditions on the farm. Let's talk it over, Mr. Farmer. Price, without body, $550 f. o. b. Detroit.
